Channel 7 is to be commended for their coverage during Ivan. You've done a great job before, but your people went above and beyond the call of duty as Ivan approached. Jason Kelly's work locating tornados was super. He should be complimented & rewarded by many.

We in Liberty County were blessed and lucky. Again our sincere appreciation for a job well done.

Sincerely

Dear Tracy,

First, let me complement you on your team at WJHG, your people are amazing. Your coverage of Hurricane Ivan was incredible, I could not turn off the TV and when I lost power, I was glued to the radio; TV 7's efforts saved lives.

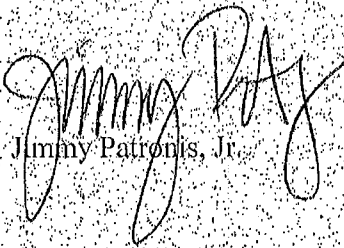

I just wanted to personally thank you for media attention that your company did for the Hurricane Ivan Relief effort, without your contribution to this effort, the success that we achieved would not have been possible. Your station brought awareness to the public, their reaction to the relief effort was phenomenal. Your viewers rallied in droves, the outpouring of support is into the thousands of dollars and hundreds of pounds. People that I have never met before in my life brought goods to Capt. Anderson's; they acted as it was their duty.

Whenever Capt. Anderson's has a cause or need, WJHG has ALWAYS been there for us. The satisfaction that I feel is nothing compared to the humbleness, you have a friend in Capt. Anderson's Restaurant for whatever you need whenever needed.

I will take some pictures tomorrow and email them to you; the turnout was incredible.

I have been encouraged to make this an annual event, I will let you sleep on that idea; I figure that we could consider this in the future.

Sincerely and Very Grateful,

Jimmy Patronis, Jr.

Dear Ms. Connors:

We appreciate your participation in Capt. Anderson's Ivan Help 2004. Catholic Charities was one of the benefactors of the event. Our food pantry had been greatly depleted after a surge of requests following the storm. This effort by Capt. Anderson's and Jimmy Patronis was a tremendous boon to the replenishment of stock. Thank you for your part in bringing this project together.

If you would like information regarding Catholic Charities or its programs, feel free to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,

Dear Tracy Connors and Joe Moore:

I want to express my thanks and deepest appreciation for the job you and your employees did in the aftermath of Hurricane Ivan. The information you provided to residents gave them hope, something we all needed in the wake of the storm. Thank you for your coverage of Gulf Power during our restoration efforts. Your reporting helped keep our customers informed about the process of getting their lights back on. It was a tremendous effort by all companies toward a common goal – restoring normalcy to our communities. We're proud to be a part of this tremendous effort and appreciate the teamwork you made possible.
